

What is Values of Supporting People?

This is a one day course with group exercises and discussions designed to help you understand what good support looks like.

The Aims

To introduce you to good practice and values in social care with an overview of the roles and responsibilities of supporting people

Who is this suitable for?

People who work in or are seeking to work in a social care environment. We are also happy to deliver this course for people and their families who get support or are looking to find support through an organisation or as an employer of personal assistants.

What will our work cover?

- To introduce all those involved in support to social care good practice and values.
- To give you an overview of roles and responsibilities in supporting someone
- To give an understanding of confidentiality and how to maintain it
- To help you understand what we mean by values and how to apply that to the role of supporting someone
- To give an overview of the Codes of Practice for Social Care Workers and how they relate to the job of personal assistant

What will it cost?

£995.00 + travel for a full day with up to 12 people
£125.00 Individuals to take part in organised courses

What do customers say?

"The training was excellent and has opened up a range of possibilities for our clients"

Steven Penman, Stirling Council

Want to find out more?

Contact us today on 0141 212 3395 or email info@viascotland.org.uk.